SUMMARY

Results-driven product manager and team player with 7+ years building B2B and consumer health products. Comfortable taking ambiguous problems from discovery to launch with engineering, design and data partners.

EXPERIENCE

Senior Product Manager | Lumen Health — Mar 2021 – Present

- Led the redesign of patient onboarding, increasing activation by 34% across 120K monthly users.
- Responsible for managing the product roadmap and working with engineering teams on quarterly planning.
- Launched a self-serve billing portal that cut support tickets by 41% and saved $310K annually.
- Worked on the analytics dashboard used by the leadership team for weekly business reviews.
- I owned weekly stakeholder updates and my squads' sprint rituals across three product teams.

Product Manager | Brightcart — 06/2018 – 02/2021

- Grew repeat purchases 22% by introducing personalized recommendations with the data science team.
- Helped with the launch of a new mobile checkout experience for returning customers.
- Duties included writing PRDs, running user interviews, coordinating QA and release notes.
- Drove the end-to-end discovery, scoping, prioritisation and delivery process for the merchant tools area, partnering with sales, support, legal and finance stakeholders to define requirements and align on what should be built each quarter.

Associate Product Manager | Northwind Labs — Jul 2016 – May 2018

- Assisted in gathering requirements for the B2B reporting module.
- Analyzed funnel data in SQL to find drop-off points, improving trial-to-paid conversion by 9%.
